EIAO/FSRE Program for Industry Slated for November

On November 1 - 3, 2005, the International HACCP Alliance will host an EIAO/FSRE Program for Industry in College Station, Texas. This program is a condensed version of the USDA/FSIS Enforcement Investigation and Analysis Officer (EIAO) Educational Program and the Food Safety Regulatory Essentials (FSRE) program. The three-day program will focus on the EIAO Work Methods and Administrative Enforcement Activities and the FSRE portion will focus on elements being taught to inspectors from FSIS Directive 5000.1, Revision 1 and current regulatory information on E. coli O157:H7 and Listeria monocytogenes.

This program is designed to allow industry to develop a better understanding of the EIAO and FSRE educational programs and the roles of the trained personnel within the agency. The registration fee for the program is $95.00 per person, payable to the International HACCP Alliance. To register, fill out the attached registration form or download the information from the "Hot Topics" page on the HACCP Alliance web site at <http://haccpalliance.org>. The program is limited to 90 participants, so please return the registration form and fee to the International HACCP Alliance office by October 25, 2005.

HACCP Train-the-Trainer Course Set for September 12-14 in Washington

The next HACCP Train-the-Trainer course will be held September 12-14 in Washington, D.C., in the offices of the Food Processors Institute and the Food Products Association. The registration fee for the course is $500.00, payable to the International HACCP Alliance. The HACCP Train-the-Trainer course is sponsored by the International HACCP Alliance and the Food Processors Institute. Attached to this sheet is a course registration form and a list of Washington-area hotel recommendations. Individuals are responsible for making their own travel and room reservations. Since the course is limited to 40 participants, please return the registration form and fee to the International HACCP Alliance office as soon as possible.
