Information

Global HACCP Conference Moving Forward

The HACCP Alliance Board of Directors agreed to proceed with plans for hosting a Global HACCP Conference. The conference will be held in the Fall of 2001 and the dates and location will be released as soon as the hotel information is confirmed. The committee, co-chaired by Bob Savage (HACCP Consulting Group) and Jeff Savell (Texas A&M University), has developed the following list of tentative topics:

- Overview of the initial purpose of HACCP vs. the use of HACCP today.
- Verification and validation — how to adequately address these areas.
- The proper use of risk assessment and risk management.
- International concepts of HACCP.
- The use of prerequisite programs in food safety.

Harris Selected to Receive Vice Chancellor's Award

During the Department of Animal Science Holiday Reception and Luncheon on Wednesday, December 13th at Texas A&M University, Kerri B. Harris was notified that she has been selected to receive the 2000 Vice Chancellor's Award in Excellence for Industry/Agency/Association Partnerships. This award and a check for $500 will be presented during the 2001 Agriculture Program Conference on Tuesday, January 9th, 2001. The emphasis of this award is on the development of programs, partnerships or alliances with communities, industry, professional associations, other state/federal agencies and universities that have demonstrated benefits for all partners. This year marks history as the Vice Chancellor's Awards in Excellence Program celebrates its 20th Anniversary.
