

July 2000

Alliance News Lines

Information

HIMP Training Programs Being Reviewed for Accreditation

Two training programs for the HACCP Inspection Model Project (HIMP) have been received by the International HACCP Alliance and are currently in the accreditation review process. If you would like to submit a HIMP training program for accreditation, download the HIMP curriculum along with an updated accreditation application package from the International HACCP Alliance website address: <http://haccpalliance.org/alliance/training.html> and submit your course materials. For information about the HIMP training program, contact Dr. Kerri B. Harris, HACCP Alliance executive director, by telephone at 979-862-3643 or by e-mail at kharris@tamu.edu.

Registration Deadline Rapidly Approaching for HACCP Train-the-Trainer Course

The next HACCP Train-the-Trainer course is scheduled for September 12-14, 2000, in Washington, DC. The deadline for registration is August 18, 2000. If you have not already registered for the course, please contact Robin See in the HACCP Alliance office for a registration form. The train-the-trainer course is sponsored by the International HACCP Alliance and the Food Processors Institute.

Harris Nominated to Serve on AMSA Committee

During the 53rd Annual Reciprocal Meat Conference at The Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio, Kerri B. Harris was nominated as secretary of the Industry/Extension Committee for the American Meat Science Association (AMSA). Harris also gave an update on the International HACCP Alliance activities to AMSA's Industry/Extension Committee.

HACCP Train-the-Trainer Courses Scheduled for Mexico and Costa Rica

A HACCP Train-the-Trainer Course in Spanish has been scheduled for November 28-30 in Mexico City, Mexico. Plans are also underway for a fall 2000 HACCP Train-the-Trainer course in San Jose, Costa Rica. Course location and hotel room accommodations are currently being finalized.